International Seminar Camino de Santiago and Europe

INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR CAMINO DE SANTIAGO AND EUROPE

Santiago de Compostela

23-25 October 2017

The Chair of Camino de Santiago and Pilgrimage of the University of Santiago de Compostela organises, in collaboration with the CGU, the International Seminar Camino de Santiago and Europe.

This interdisciplinary and international activity is aimed at students and doctoral students from member universities of the Compostela Group of Universities. The participants will attend lectures and take part in debates about the legal, social and cultural aspects of the Camino a Santiago and Europe.

Scholarships

The organization of the seminar offers 12 scholarships to cover accommodation and meals for participants who wish to take part in this academic activity.

Teacher Trainers: Involve your students in a virtual exchange in the spring semester 2018 with EVALUATE project

Do you work in initial teacher education? Would you like to give your students first-hand experience in communicating and collaborating online with classes of students from other countries?

EVALUATE project will help you to engage your students of teacher education in Virtual Exchange projects with partner classes in other countries. Read how the exchanges are organised and complete this short registration form in order to receive more information.

Conference 'Shaping the social impact of European research: policies, strategies, funding'

This conference, that will take place in Brussels on the 6th November, is held in the framework of the 7th UNICA-SGroup-Compostela Group of Universities joint annual meeting.

The discussion will highlight such themes as the challenges faced by European research, the social impact of research through regional engagement of universities or the social responsibility of universities sharing knowledge.
